

URINE for Legionella and/or Pneumococcus

A specific sterile container for urine (which can either be collected at CUP or bought in any pharmacy) is needed.

Collect the first urine of the morning directly into the container until the urine reaches the height of a thumb.

Close the container carefully.

Deliver it to the laboratory.

N.B.: The container must be stored in the fridge for 24 hours

Translation by Davide Campari