

URINE 24-hours collection

A specific container (which can either be collected at CUP or bought in any pharmacy) is needed.

Urinate in the morning around 7 am and discard said urines.

Afterwards, collect all the urine produced during the day and the night inside the container, including that produced at 7 am the morning after.

During the collection the container is to be stored in a cool place, away from direct light sources.

Translation by Davide Campari